

Effective October 1, 2025, Aetna Better Health of Florida reimburses Qualified Residential Treatment Program (QRTP) Service

What is QRTP?

Qualified Residential Treatment Program (QRTP) services provide community-based, residential, behavioral health treatment to increase coping skills and functional abilities and reduce psychiatric symptoms or disruptive behaviors, enabling recipients to return to a less restrictive environment.

Provider Eligibility

Eligible providers include:

- QRTPs credentialed by the Department of Children and Families (DCF) per Rule 65C-28.021, FAC (Provider Type 05 / Specialty 202)
- BQRTPs licensed by DCF per Rule 65C-46.0211, FAC (Provider Type 05 / Specialty 203)

Billing Information

The following chart provides the current billing code and rate for QRTP Services. The HM modifier is required to indicate QRTP services. Claims submitted without the modifier will not be reimbursed appropriately.

CPT	Modifier	Description	Fee Schedule Rate
H0019	HM	Test for detecting genes associated with disease, genome sequencing analysis	$181.51

Note: Fee Schedule rates are updated by the state and posted to the state website linked below. QRTP codes/rates are located on the Specialized Therapeutic Services Fee Schedule.
