Dear Member,

We have an important update for you.

You recently received a letter about our name changing from IlliniCare Health to Aetna Better Health of Illinois. This change was scheduled for October 1, 2020. To ensure we are ready for this exciting change, we need a bit more time. So we've decided to move our transition date to December 1, 2020.

What you need to know now.

IlliniCare Health will become Aetna Better Health of Illinois on December 1, 2020. We will be the same local health plan you've known, only better. As an Aetna Better Health of Illinois member, you will be able to keep your current hospital and primary care provider, as well as access the same great benefits and network of community-based health care providers. We know this is important to you. Our added value benefits -- like free gym memberships, school uniforms and after school care will also stay the same.

We'll be sending you updates in October and November on our upcoming name change. You'll receive a new Aetna Better Health of Illinois ID card and handbook in late November. Until then, please continue to use your IlliniCare Health ID card and handbook. Also, you'll notice that during Open Enrollment activities this fall, IlliniCare Health will be listed as "Aetna Better Health of Illinois (formerly IlliniCare Health)", as well as in some letters you may be receiving between now and December 1.

We're here for you.

We are committed to being your local health partner. Our dedicated Care Management and Member Services team is here to answer any questions you may have about our upcoming name change. You can call them at 1-866-329-4701 (TTY: 711). You can also visit our website at IlliniCare.com for more information about IlliniCare Health becoming Aetna Better Health of Illinois. We value your membership and strive to provide you with excellent service and the best health care you deserve.

Sincerely,

IlliniCare Health
