

Let's talk about SoonerSelect

SoonerSelect provides quality health care options to Oklahomans who qualify for SoonerCare benefits.

Why is SoonerSelect important?

SoonerSelect is important because it helps more Oklahomans have access to affordable health insurance. Health insurance is necessary to help manage the costs of doctor's visits, pharmacy, surgery or even emergency room visits.

How does SoonerSelect make medical care more accessible and affordable?

With SoonerSelect, you can choose a doctor you trust. There are many offices, hospitals, specialists and urgent cares accepting SoonerSelect insurance. SoonerSelect is health insurance covering all or most of your health care expenses at little to no cost to you.

Who qualifies for SoonerSelect?

Populations include:

- Most children
- Children receiving adoption assistance
- Low-income parents
- Parents and caretaker relatives
- Pregnant women
- Non-disabled adults ages 19-64
- American Indians/Alaskan Natives (option to voluntarily enroll in SoonerSelect)

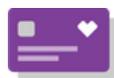

What are the income guidelines?

Many families qualify for SoonerSelect even if they work. Qualifications are based upon:

- The number of people in your household
- Your gross income
- The age of your child/children

Think your income may be a little too high? Apply anyway - some applicants qualify with slightly higher incomes.
